Declares Both Dr. W. E. Foster and William Broadbent Will Be Successful in Election
Friday
LATTER IS CERTAIN OF
SIXTEEN VOTES, HE SAYS
It is Now Practically Certain
Captain English Will Not Be Made Member of Board
Unopposed

The withdrawal of J. F. Letton from the race for police commissioner from the Sixth ward does not mean, says Captain J. W. English, will be elected mayor, according to the latest assertion Tuesday of Councilman Jesse M. Wood, a member of the Sixth ward delegation.

Councilman Wood states that a conference of the Letton supporters was held and a candidate against Captain English to take the place of Letton will be selected. Already a number of men are mentioned, but Mr. Wood says that the name of the candidate will not be announced with any authority until after the conference.

The fight for the control of the board, which will be decided by council next Monday, is daily growing more interesting, and Tuesday for the first time Mayor Woodward made a statement during the election, and he would break the tie.

Supporters of W. A. Verner, who is running against English, conceded the latter fifteen votes Tuesday morning. Councilman Wood, however, declared that several votes are likely to be won during the week.

The name of Mr. Sisson will be put before the board by Alderman J. W. Madison. Councilman Wood, however, declared that several votes are likely to be won during the week.

Chief Asks Power to Decide
Fate of Plain Clothes Men
Despite his recent colloquy with Mayor Woodward, who was informed by the mayor that he knew of no well to do about the plain clothes men, Chief of Police J. L. Beavers has requested a special meeting of the board in order that he may be given definite instructions.

It is understood that Chief Beavers has requested for "instructions" in a letter to W. P. Fain, chairman of the board, in which he has requested a special meeting of the commission be called to decide whether or not the plain clothes men should be put back in uniform.

The result of the meeting of a number of the members of the board of police commissioners have contained that the matter in which the January appointment sheet was passed by council was equivalent to an ordinance abolishing the plain clothes squad. Chief Beavers has agreed to this.

Then, he said, there will be seven policemen in plain clothes, and the board is waiting for instructions from the police board.

Chairman Fain will probably announce the result of the meeting of the board at a meeting of the board of police commissioners.

Blow Post Law Is Held Constitutional By Supreme Court

State Can Compel Interstate
Trains to Whistle for Crossings and Slacken Speed,
Says Decision

The state supreme court Tuesday held that the "blow post law," requiring railroads to place whistle posts several hundred yards from crossings to blow the whistles of their engines when approaching these crossings and to slacken speed while doing so, was not unconstitutional.

An attack on the constitutionality of the law was made by the Seaboard Air Line railroad, which contended the statute was unconstitutional when applied to a train engaged in interstate commerce.

The railroad contended that the statute known as the "blow post law," could not be made to apply to interstate trains and showed that the train which killed the child was running between a point in Georgia and another point in North Carolina. It also contended that it would be impossible to make any sort of a schedule if these trains were required to slow down at every crossing.

IT'S TRUE! LOU CASTRO IS GOING TO GRIFFIN

Will Manage Griffin House and Baseball Club on the Side

Count Lou Castro, ex-ball player, ex-ump, ex-plantier and extra good fellow, raconteur and entertainer, is soon to add another to his long list of professions. This time he is going to keep hotel. Where? Come up closer, and listen:

Griffin? You see, Sam Pearson, who sells autos in Atlanta, owns the Griffin house, one of the most famous one-night stands in Georgia. They say the most expensive and assorted collection of stage costumes and accessories in America is in the Griffin house, left there as a souvenir of years and in lieu of board bills by numerous actors and actresses during the British Imperial Dramatic troupe in "Michael Strogoff," down to a real of crushed film representing act III of "The White Slave." Which has nothing to do with the case, whatever. It takes a manager, not a money, to run a hotel.

So Mr. Pearson approached Count Castro in the latter's official capacity as assistant superintendent of the Atlanta club and submitted a proposition. It was so flattering in its terms that the count just couldn't turn it down. He was to move on Griffin not later than next Sunday, assume charge of the Griffin house, its bell hops, waiters, chef, assistant, valet, porter, and wine cellar. There's nothing in the wine cellar, since Griffin put a $10,000 tax on high-beer, but it's a fine place to keep a dog.

And besides, Mr. Castro expects to manage the Griffin baseball club, of the well known Georgia-Alabama league, Griffin having raised a lot, purchased Seima's franchise in that league and prepared to go after a pennant. And naturally, with a man like Castro in town, no other manager would be considered.

The congratulations of Lou Castro's many friends will be limited only with regret that his new duties remove him from Atlanta and the club, where he has held forth so long as a great entertainer, pourer of oil on troubled waters, and general good fellow. He has played many roles in his day and those who know him believe that he will be as brilliant a hostess as he was a houseman. And besides, it's only a short run to Griffin, and the auto road is fine.

"Come on down, you fellows," says Lou. "I know a way to fry chicken that I learned in the Cotton States league. No, I won't tell you. Come down and I'll show you."

Blue Beer—or Just Stupid?

Sluggish bowels and torpid liver usually go together and take good care of taking food for constipation to produce a bad condition—a feeling of languor or listlessness—the "blues," headache, indigestion or other malady. Indeed, when in this condition the patient is more prone to illness and is not able to throw off disease. Policy Cathartic Tablets are a wholesome laxative and cleansing cathartic. They act without inconvenience, griping or sickening. Sold everywhere.—(Adv.)

Baron Burian

Baron Burian is the man who has assumed Austria's portfolio as minister of foreign affairs. He is a Hungarian. It is said that his appointment was caused by the feeling of revolt throughout Hungary because the army's resistance to the Russians was demoralized. The baron has already achieved the purpose for which he was appointed, for by the aid of General von Hindenburg, the Russians have been compelled to give up their hold on Hungary. The photograph was taken in Berlin, where Burian had gone for a consultation with the Kaiser.

COOLNESS OF TEACHER AVERTS PANIC IN FIRE

Presence of mind on the part of Miss Anna Campbell, principal of the Lakeview Heights school on Sawtell avenue, averted a probable panic among 450 pupils Monday when fire broke out on the roof. Someone ran into the building, shouting "Fire!" but Miss Campbell, by giving the fire-drill signal, marched all of the pupils out of the school with no confusion. The fire damaged the roof only slightly.

Lent Services in Decatur

Holy Trinity Episcopal church in Decatur, Ga., is holding Lenten services every Thursday night at 8 o'clock during Lent, special preachers taking the services. A number of the leading Episcopal clergy will follow, including Dean Atkinson, of the cathedral, and Dr. Wilmer.

DEPUTY ARRESTED BY NEGRO SCRUB-WOMAN

"Aunt" Clara Watches Electric Globes at New Court House

So thoroughly have the Fulton county authorities imbued people visiting the new court house with a determination to protect the building from defacement and to stop the thievery of electric light globes and other articles from the building, that even the negro scrub women have joined in the crusade.

Clara Guess, an old colored woman of jovial disposition who scrubs on the first floor, went so far the other day in her zeal to catch a thief that she arrested an out-of-town deputy sheriff who had dropped in with a friend to pay his respects to Tax Collector A. P. Stewart.

Going into the tax collector's office after Mr. Stewart and his associates had left for the day, the deputy and his friend stepped back in the rear to get a drink of water, and as they emerged into the marble-paved corridor, they were confronted by "Aunt" Clara and placed under arrest in the approved Decatur street fashion of a seizure of the arms.

They told "Aunt" Clara they had bothered nothing and offered to let her search their pockets for stolen electric light bulbs, but she refused to be drawn into a controversy.

She set up a loud howl for the elevator boy and the superintendent of the building, who promptly came to her assistance on the run. The deputy and his friend soon convinced them they were law-abiding citizens, and were released and allowed to go their way, but before leaving they stopped to praise "Aunt" Clara for her loyal spirit.

DR. ATKINSON SPEAKS AT LENTEN SERVICES

Dr. John R. Atkinson, dean of St. Philip's cathedral, was the speaker again Tuesday at the Episcopal Lenten services, which are being held daily from 12:15 to 12:30 o'clock in the Steiner-Emery building, viaduct and Franklin street.

Wednesday, Dr. C. B. Wilmer, rector of St. Luke's church, will speak. The services last precisely 25 minutes and are designed to afford the busy man and woman a chance to observe Lent without interfering with business.

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls colds, piles, fevers, and other dependent ills. Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective laxative-constipant, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 1122 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

DR. CHAPMAN PREACHES ON THE HOLY SPIRIT

Large Audience Hears Inspiring Sermon at Tabernacle Tuesday Afternoon

In spite of inclement weather a large audience attended the afternoon services of the Chapman-Alexander revival Tuesday and was rewarded with a fine sermon by Dr. Chapman on the subject of the Holy Spirit.

His text was taken from the second verse of the nineteenth chapter of Acts: "Have you received the Holy Spirit since you believed?"

Spiritual power in the daily religious life was Dr. Chapman's theme, and in the development of his argument he showed that simple acceptance of Christ is not sufficient, that every avenue of one's nature must be thrown open for the spirit to enter and abide.

The sermon follows: This is one of the most important questions which can be put to a Christian. The revised version makes the text read: "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" But it is a matter of small importance to me whether you take the authorized version or the revised. The question is: "Are you living today as God would have you?" Is yours a spirit-filled life?

Are you consistent in your coming—your place of business and your friends? CAN GOD TRUST YOU?

Are you in such a position with God that he could trust you with His power? I asked the question of the text one day in a professor in one of the western universities, and he told me first that he did not know what I meant by it, but after I had explained he went away and came back later to say that he had made the complete surrender, and that he had been the means of leading out of his students to Christ.

Some years later I heard that all of these students had set their faces either toward the ministry or the church. I am not talking to you about sinless persons. Regeneration does not mean the eradication of the old nature, but the implanting of a new one. Paul does not describe the warring of the two, but an living a worldly life, if I am selfish and inconsistent, my fleshly nature is in the ascendancy. If I have received the Holy Ghost into my life, the spiritual nature has power. I am talking about the yielding of one's self to God. When I accept Christ as my Savior I am saved, but when I place Him on the throne, then the spirit of God comes in and I am in possession of His power.

God is no respecter of persons in the matter of the baptism of power. These are days when God wants the best. When He desires the one in whose veins the bluest blood flows, when He is seeking the one with the highest social position, the surrender of fifty such women. But He wants the women also who stand at the capes and in the social life the woman who feels the pinch of poverty, whose shoulders are bent with many burdens, who has aged before her time because of care. He wants her that he may work through her for his greatest ministers, as a matter of fact, the men, and the greatest leaders of men have almost, without exception, come from such women.

I think I know the reason why I have not received the Holy Ghost with power. It is because we have disobeyed some clear command. God called us to the mission field, to the Sunday school, to some special effort in His behalf, and we said, "No," and man's "No" is always a barrier to the bestowal of God's power. Or it may be that we are not right with our fellowmen. You cannot have a difference with another and not make it right. You cannot be inconsistent and not confess it. You cannot be sinful and not repent of it without lifting the barriers in the way of working out of God's will in your life. Or it may be that we have not confessed our sins.

CONFESSED HIS SIN. I know of a man who took $200 from the cash box expecting to pay it back again, kept it for twelve years, prospered in a business way, but had no spiritual power. One day he confessed his sin and restored the stolen money with compound interest, and immediately he was blessed. If we should receive the Holy Ghost into the kingdom, and he became a marvel of spiritual blessing to others. If we should receive the Holy Ghost the work in this city would move forward with a bound, souls would be won to Jesus Christ, there would come in our own households. Those of whom we have heard so much concerned would be seeking Christ for themselves.

The Bible would become a new book. It is not possible to be as God would have us as Christians, if we are unfaithful of the Bible. A great change would come into our lives. A friend of mine was the nephew of the conversion of the slum girl in New York City known as "Blue Bird." She found her in the vilest den of immorality in this city, gave her a pink robe which she had in her hand, and asked her to come to her own home if she needed help. The girl came. The servant refused to admit her. She was still waiting outside the door when my friend returned. "Please," she said, "can't you help me?" and my friend, a delicate, refined woman, stooped down and kissed her, carried her into the house, bathed her with her own hands, put her in her daughter's bed and led her to Christ. She became one of the mightiest spiritual forces among women in our city, and when she died, a short time afterward, she had led sixty girls like herself to Christ, and they tell her story still in our city, blessing God for the change wrought, the same change which might come to many of us, did we but view our lives fully to Christ.

MAN WANTED HERE GIVEN TERM IN S. C.

The Fulton county sheriff's office was notified Tuesday morning by the county authorities of Charleston, S. C., that Frank R. Nolan, a young man wanted in Atlanta on two warrants charging forgery, and located in Charleston some weeks ago, has been tried in that city on the same charge, found guilty, and sentenced to serve two years in the South Carolina state penitentiary. On completion of his term Nolan will find the Fulton authorities waiting for him, to bring him back here to answer the local warrants.

STATE MUTUAL LIFE MAY RESUME BUSINESS SOON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) ROME, Ga., Feb. 22.—W. W. Butolph, an attorney of Indianapolis, Ind., who has been investigating the affairs of the State Mutual Life Insurance company of Rome, will report to the state insurance department as follows: "In spite of extensive litigation, the company shows a substantial gain in its condition and should be continued in business, for with the loyal support of its policyholders it will eventually be in a position to pay all maturing obligations and protect all interests involved."

Colonel Hamilton Vanney, who has charge of the company, representing W. A. Wright, state insurance commissioner, states that premiums are being paid regularly by policyholders, and that there is no difficulty in writing new business. It is believed the company will be reorganized and resume business actively before the first of next year.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not relieved, causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable show and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—(Advt.)

TAKING CALOMEL FOR CONSTIPATION

LIKE BORROWING FROM MONEY BANK.

Every Dose Means a Bigger One Next Month. Calomel Shocks System Into Temporary Action. Oozy, Weakens, Rots Organs of Natural Action.

Calomel is a powerful mercurial drug. It crashes into the sour bile on the stomach and works it up, and the shock and working up of the bile forces liver and bowels to action. But with this forcible movement and the vomiting and the awful nausea, the whole system is weakened, bowels paralyzed and a relaxing dose of castor oil or strong salts must be taken.

Now as only the sour bile has been removed from the stomach, and nothing done to correct what caused this bile and constipation, in a few weeks is needed another and a stronger shaking up.

JACOBS' LIVER SALT acts upon the liver as safely as castor oil, but by stimulation, not force. It removes the cause of the trouble. It dissolves the poisonous uric acid that has accumulated in the system and carries it off in the urine; and it quickly flushes the alimentary tract and cleanses it of all stagnating waste and fermentation. And it combines easily with the gastric juices of the stomach and supplies the deficient sulphates that nature uses to digest food and prevent uric acid deposits.

JACOBS' LIVER SALT is a natural and quick remedy for constipation, biliousness, indigestion, sour stomach, rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, and all other hepatic ailments. It is effervescent and agreeable, quick to act, very mild and sure. No other liver medicine has the same natural, stimulant effect. Don't take a substitute. 1-2 lb. jar 50c at Druggists, Jacobs' Pharmacy, Atlanta, Ga.—(Advt.)

Five Hundred Women's and Misses' Suits Have Arrived Within the Month That Your ONE May Be Just What You Would Have It

We have heard it remarked in vague ways now and then, as if it were a sort of undercurrent of belief, that many stores were not showing the usual varieties of suits--that they had limited their purchases this Spring.

We can but speak for ourselves--and so we wish to go on record with this statement--

We are showing right now great numbers, greater varieties of Suits for Women and Misses than we ever have in the spring.

There are no ifs, ands or exceptions for this statement--the suits are here and you shall see them.

Why this most lavish display? Well, we found conditions most favorable for the store that had the temerity to do a big thing. The styles were so distinctive, so varied, that it was possible to gather greater numbers of exclusive models than ever before.

And we gathered them, full of the confidence that the women of Atlanta deserved, and would appreciate the privilege of choosing their suits from the broadest variety of the successful styles that were brought out this spring.

Here they are then, one after another, one different from another. For it isn't the quantity of the suits that we would emphasize but the quantity of different, distinctive models that you may select your one from. There's the point, your one suit may be one of seemingly infinite variety.

The Fabrics

The styles are developed so variously that correctness really means nothing more than individual choice. The silks used this season are failles and poplins; the woolens are serges, gabardines, covert cloths--many of them cravenetted--whipcords, poplins, English checks, not only in black and white, but brown, green and blue and white--then there are English suitings of many sorts.

The Colors

We do not recall a season that has brought a more distinctive color card. We could name a half dozen different shades of blue that are good--including navy, Joffre and Rocky Mountain; a Palm Beach sand is particularly smart; grays are in favor, including battleship, Gettysburg and Nevada silver and putty. There is a strong liking for black and white checks. An easy season for shades.

The Styles

They run the gamut of variety--with becomingness as the keynote. For the slight figure, coats with raised waist line, for the full figure coats with waist line clearly marked. Belts are very prominent. There are severely tailored coats and coats that show a good bit of trimming after the military idea. Skirts are novel--with more fullness than ever--often plain, often shirred at the waist.

The price range goes easily from $17.85 up and up to $85, with any number of stops on the way---notable excellence at $25, $29.75 and $35
